

EXTEMPORANEOUS PUBLIC SPEAKING

Students participating in the Extemporaneous Public Speaking Leadership Development Event showcase their agricultural knowledge and ability to think on their feet by giving a speech and answering questions with limited prep time.

This event challenges students to practice their presentation skills, articulation, and logical thinking and advocate for agriculture and agricultural education.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. A list of 30 topics from one broad category will be approved by the State Executive committee at the July State Executive Meeting. A list of topics will be emailed to advisors. State topics may be used for a two year rotation. These topics are suggested for use at district and local contests, but are not required. Topics for use at Sectionals and State Events will come from this list.
2. The contestant will draw two topics from the list during a random draw. From the two selected topic areas the contestant will decide on which topic will be presented with the remaining topic areas returned for possible use by a succeeding contestant. The topics will be recorded and forwarded to the judges.
3. The selection of the topic will be held to allow 30 minutes of preparation prior to the CDE. Since the speech can be from four to six minutes with five minutes of questions, the contestants should select their topic approximately 10-12 minutes apart.
4. A suitable quiet area, free from distractions, should be provided for contestants to prepare their speech.
5. Reference material will be screened by the officials in charge of this event on the following basis:
  - Shall be limited to five items.
  - Items must be printed material, such as books, magazines and/or a compilation of collected materials. Of these five items, one item may be a notebook or folder of collected materials that may contain no more than 100 numbered pages; single sided, and numbered in consecutive order from 1 to 100. None of these pages may be speech notes, speech outlines or written speeches prepared by the contestant or another person for the purpose of use for this event. Copies must reference the origination point. No computers will be allowed in the preparation room.
  - All reference material will be held in the preparation room until the judges have completed the results.
  - Members may copy and paste cited excerpts (the whole article does not need to be included) of online articles for inclusion in the notebook referenced above.
6. Each speech shall be the result of the participant's own effort using only approved reference material which the participant may bring to the preparation room. No other assistance may be provided. Any notes for use in the CDE must be prepared in the 30 minute time period.
7. Any notes for speaking must be made during the 30 minute preparation period on uniform note cards provided each contestant.
8. Each speech should be no less than four and no more than six minutes in length. An additional five minutes will be allowed for the judges to ask related questions. The room coordinator of the event will introduce the participant by name and state. The participant may introduce his or her speech by title only. Participants will be penalized one point per second on each judge's score sheet for being over six minutes or under four minutes. Time commences when the speaker begins talking.
