Picture this: A student sitting in their first class of the day, dreading what lay ahead of them. Feeling nothing but indifference towards their future and frustration at the fact that they even need to be at school. With no interest in the events or opportunities that are around them, day in and day out, they squander their own potential with complete ignorance as to what exactly it is that they are missing. Life seems hopeless. Three years ago, I was that student sitting in that desk first thing in the morning. Never would I have imagined this is where I would end up.

When I made the decision to join FFA my sophomore year, my life changed forever. I have fostered a true love for affecting change in myself as well as those around me. I have learned that a kind word or a vote of confidence, even from a complete stranger, can have an immense impact on somebody's life. I have learned that we are all great in our own ways. And above all, I have learned that if you love people, you will love life. These are all things I want to share with every member that I meet!

The innumerable experiences and opportunities I've had the past two years as a member of FFA are exactly what makes this organization so precious to me. I would never have grown into the person I am today without them, and I know many of you feel the exact same way. No matter what it is that you've decided to devote your time to within FFA, we all have been following our own path to greatness. It would be truly an honor to be a part of something so incredible. Oregon FFA, it is for this reason that I am beyond excited to announce my candidacy for the 2017-2018 State Officer Team!

Though the journey hasn't been easy, the challenges that I've faced along the way have made me a stronger leader, and a better person. I wouldn't trade my time in the corduroy jacket for the world, and while I know there are more tests awaiting me down the road, I will face them alongside each and every one of you with an open heart, and an open mind. Oregon FFA, I cannot wait to see all of you in Redmond for the 2017 Oregon FFA State Convention!

Sincerely,

Ryan Dunigan
