

AVAILABLE WORKSHOPS

“Playing the supplement game! Why, When and How” By Jesse Wartnjes, Associated Feeds & Mari Palacio, Showrite Show Feeds

Sponsored By: Wilco

Saturday @ 10:30 A.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: We will discuss feed supplement use in cattle, sheep, hogs and goats and how you can utilize them in your feed program to take your livestock project to the next level. If hanging banners is your goal, we can help!

“Cattle Show Stock Success Seminar” By Brock May

Sponsored By: Wilco

Saturday @ 10:30 A.M. Tent/Livestock Barn

Description: Thirty minute educational feeding and supplement presentation by Dr. Burgoon followed by a two hour management, feeding, showing, and fitting clinic for cattle exhibitors.

“Sheep & Goats Show Stock Success Seminar” By Clay Elliott

Sponsored By: Wilco

Saturday @ 10:30 A.M. Tent/Livestock Barn

Description: Thirty minute educational feeding and supplement presentation by Dr. Burgoon followed by a two hour management, feeding, showing, and fitting clinic for sheep and goat exhibitors.

“A Portable Livestock System”, By Andrew Hartenstein, Young Life/Muddy Ranch

Sponsored By: VSI

Saturday at 11:00 A.M. in Sagebrush Arena

Description: A portable approach to handling cattle of all ages in a low stress and high capacity system using minimal labor. This system utilizes a Daniels Double Alley, Bud Box and Hydraulic Calf Table.

“Planning for Success” By Andrea Krahmer, Northwest Farm Credit Services

Sponsored By: Northwest Farm Credit Services

Saturday @ 11:00 A.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: How much is your SAE project going to cost? What do you need to plan for? What do you want to accomplish? Learn how to take time to plan, strategize steps to get there and put your plan in action. What will make you feel successful?

“With Liberty and Justice for ALL: Examining Diversity in FFA” By Kristopher Elliott, Ph.D., Oregon Outdoor School, and Allison Meadows, Sherwood High School

Sponsored By: Stoel Rives LLP

Saturday @ 11:30 A.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Description: This workshop will explore the concept of diversity. Participants will (1) learn how to create a culture in their chapters that allows for diversity to be discussed in a safe environment; (2) become more aware of and appreciate the differences of others; and (3) assess their comfort with issues related to diversity and develop a plan for personal growth.

“Reaching Others” By Grace Taylor, Minnesota FFA State President

Sponsored By: Beaver Coach Sales & Service

Saturday @ 12:00 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Join Minnesota FFA President Grace Taylor as she discovers how to share the story of agriculture. In this workshop you can expect to learn the four steps to becoming a better advocate, explore the difference between literacy and advocacy and gain knowledge on how to embrace and share your own story.

“Reaching For Your Why” By Miranda Depenbush & Scuyler Zenger, Kansas FFA State Officers

Sponsored By: Les Schawb

Saturday @ 12:30 P.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: In this workshop, members will develop an understanding for their purpose in this organization and why they should lend their talents to their chapters and communities. They will also discover what talents and/or skills they already possess or will develop and how they can use those to live out their why's.

“How We Work for You” By Oregon Department of Agriculture

Sponsored By: Oregon Department of Agriculture

Saturday @ 1:00 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Description: An interactive look into how the Oregon Department of Agriculture collaborates with agriculture in Oregon to build the states industry at home and abroad.

“Hog Show Stock Success Seminar” By Brock Herren, Herren Genetics - Oklahoma

Sponsored By: Wilco

Saturday @ 10:30 A.M. Tent/Livestock Barn

Description: Thirty minute educational feeding and supplement presentation by Dr. Burgoon followed by a two hour management, feeding, showing, and fitting clinic for hog exhibitors.

“Taking Risks” By Sadie Aronson, Washington FFA State President

Sponsored By: Wilco

Saturday @ 1:30 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Discover how to evaluate and take risks in your daily life.

“King (and Waterboy) of the Hill” By Brody Hamm, Mississippi State Secretary

Sponsored By: Harvest Capital Company

Saturday @ 2:00 P.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: The foundations of servant leadership will be explored. Students will learn the vital components of being a servant leader, and how to implement these factors to their own leadership styles and develop this potential in others around them.

“A Portable Livestock System”, By Andrew Hartenstein, Young Life/Muddy Ranch

Sponsored By: VSI

Saturday at 2:00 P.M. in Sagebrush Arena

Description: A portable approach to handling cattle of all ages in a low stress and high capacity system using minimal labor. This system utilizes a Daniels Double Alley, Bud Box and Hydraulic Calf Table.

“ Actions Speak” By Shea Booster, National FFA Western Region Vice President

Sponsored By: Country Financial

Saturday @ 2:30 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Description: Whether we realize it or not, our actions speak volumes. In fact, they speak loudly. Are we in control of what they are saying? Come on in and together we will learn to control our actions.

“With Liberty and Justice for ALL: Examining Diversity in FFA” By Kristopher Elliott, Ph.D., Oregon Outdoor School, and Allison Meadows, Sherwood High School

Sponsored By: Stoel Rives LLP

Saturday @ 2:30 P.M. in Middle Sister: Doris

Description: This workshop will explore the concept of diversity. Participants will (1) learn how to create a culture in their chapters that allows for diversity to be discussed in a safe environment; (2) become more aware of and appreciate the differences of others; and (3) assess their comfort with issues related to diversity and develop a plan for personal growth.

“Navigating Your Journey to College: Advice from OSU Students” By OSU College of Agriculture Ambassadors

Sponsored By: Grange Coop

Saturday @ 2:30 P.M. in Middle Sister: Elk

Description: Excited and slightly nervous about college? Come hear from OSU’s College of Agricultural Sciences’ Ambassadors as they give tips, answer questions and share their experience about college.

“Tagged to Teach Ag” By OSU Ag Ed Club

Sponsored By: Northwest Farm Credit Services

Saturday @ 3:00 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: The workshop is gauged to encourage students to learn about and pursue a career in agriculture education. It will be a good beginning and interactive source for students who want to know more about the profession and can ask questions.

“Crafting Your Story” By Lauren LaGrande, OSU Agricultural Communications Instructor

Sponsored By: Oregon FFA Alumni

Saturday @ 3:30 P.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: Your parents read them to you, they’re in songs and movies, and even on social media; that’s right, we’re talking about stories! Stories aren’t only restricted for children’s books, but are a part of everyday life through a variety of mediums. This workshop will help you hone in on your storytelling skills. What will you craft?

“Red or Green” By Paden McDermid, New Mexico FFA State Vice President

Sponsored By: Beaver Coach Sales & Service

Saturday @ 4:00 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Description: Where should we eat? What do I wear today? What do you want to be when you grow up? Life is constantly asking us to choose and make decisions that can sometimes seem impossible! In this workshop, we will dive into the importance of effective decision making and focus on the effects of our actions. The overarching theme of this workshop is choices; whether you make the right choice or wrong, you have to learn to live with the results.

“In Leadership We T.R.U.S.T.” By Gretchen Lee, Ohio FFA State Secretary

Sponsored By: Les Schwab

Saturday @ 4:00 P.M. in Middle Sister: Doris

Description: We all know the phrase, "trust goes both ways." In this workshop, we will examine why trust is an important aspect of leadership and how a leader can go about cultivating trust in a group

“A Day in the Life of a Dream Protector: What is like to be an Ag Insurance Agent?” By Kyle Bunch,
American Family Insurance

Sponsored By: Beaver Coach Sales & Service

Saturday @ 4:00 P.M. in Middle Sister: Elk

Description: From prospecting new clients, reviewing an ag risk at new business, and maintain clients throughout the years, what is the normal day like for an ag insurance agent? Also learn about the benefits of working in the insurance industry including schedule, benefits and the livelihood that can be built when you do it right!

“What can FFA offer You?” By Miranda Depenbush, Kansas FFA State Reporter

Sponsored By: Harvest Capital Company

Saturday @ 4:00 P.M. in Middle Sister: Eileen

Description: Join Miranda as she helps you explore what your FFA experience can look like with all of the many opportunities the organization has to offer you.

“Reaching Together” By Grace Taylor & Kegan Zimmerman, Minnesota FFA State Officers

Sponsored By: Les Schwab

Saturday @ 4:30 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Who is supporting you? Who are you supporting? In this workshop we will learn how and when to ask for help as well as how to thank those who have contributed to our cause or to our personal growth. We will also have an opportunity to explore ways we can offer help to others.

“Actions Speak” By Shea Booster, National FFA Western Region Vice President

Sponsored By: Country Financial

Sunday @ 11:30 A.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Whether we realize it or not, our actions speak volumes. In fact, they speak loudly. Are we in control of what they are saying? Come on in and together we will learn to control our actions.

“Connecting Youth with Agriculture” By Oregon Ag in the Classroom

Sponsored By: Clackamas County Farm Bureau

Sunday @ 12:00 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Sunday @ 1:30 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Sunday @ 3:00 P.M. in North Sister: Ochoco

Description: Do you enjoy working with elementary-aged students? How about teaching others about agriculture? Has your chapter made plans to participate in this year’s literacy project? If you answered “yes” to any of these questions join us for one of our hands-on workshops! These workshops will prepare you for the 2019 literacy project, John Deere, That’s Who!. Participants will learn how to connect with elementary students, how to lead the literacy activity, and other ways to get involved with agricultural education projects in your community!

“A Day in the Life of an Ag Teacher” By OSU Ag Ed Club

Sponsored By: Wilco

Sunday @ 1:00 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: This is geared towards older students who are seriously considering a career in agriculture education. It will consist of a panel of experts with guided questions as well as time for student questions.

“Vet Science CDE” By Redmond FFA Vet Science Team

Sponsored By: Beaver Coach Sales & Service

Sunday @ 2:00 P.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: This workshop will introduce participants to the Veterinary Science Career Development Event. The Redmond FFA Vet Sci Team will share with participants the scope of the contest and will teach a few of the breeds and tools that are included in the contest, as well as teach some hands on clinical procedures. This is the perfect workshop for anyone interested in the challenging and rewarding Vet Sci CDE.

“Crafting Your Story” By Lauren LaGrande, Oregon State University Agricultural Communications Instructor

Sponsored By: Oregon FFA Alumni

Sunday @ 2:00 P.M. in Middle Sister: Elk

Description: Your parents read them to you, they’re in songs and movies, and even on social media; that’s right, we’re talking about stories! Stories aren’t only restricted for children’s books, but are a part of everyday life through a variety of mediums. This workshop will help you hone in on your storytelling skills. What will you craft?

“The Art of Communication” By Maggie Edwards, Alabama State Vice President

Sponsored By: Les Schwab

Sunday @ 2:30 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Members will learn and have a better understanding of the importance of communicating with other FFA members, teachers, and sponsors. Members will also learn how good communication leads to stronger leadership skills.

“Financial Basics for your Project” By Andrea Krahmer, Northwest Farm Credit Services

Sponsored By: Northwest Farm Credit Services

Sunday @ 2:30 P.M. in Middle Sister: Doris

Description: How much money do you REALLY have? Is your project profitable?? Learn how to create a balance sheet and earnings statement for your Chapter or SAE! Walk through the basics of creating financial statements and understand what it all means.

“Find your Team” By Harrison Van Beek, Idaho FFA State Vice President

Sponsored By: Northwest Farm Credit Services

Sunday @ 3:00 P.M. in Middle Sister: Eileen

Description: Work together better to accomplish your goals. The workshop will be about three different components of teamwork: Vision, trust, and Communication. Students will have the opportunity to try on each part of teamwork for themselves and experience how it can transform co-workers into a tight-knit team.

“Reaching Out with the Oregon FFA Foundation Ambassadors” By Oregon FFA Foundation Ambassadors

Sponsored By: Oregon FFA Alumni

Sunday @ 3:30 P.M. in North Sister: Odell

Description: Join the Foundation Ambassadors as they discuss the opportunity to "reach out" through the Ambassador Program

“Reaching For Balance” By Scuyler Zenger, Kansas FFA State Secretary

Sponsored By: Beaver Coach Sales & Service

Sunday @ 3:30 P.M. in Middle Sister: Elk

Description: In this workshop, members will analyze how equitable and inclusive their lives currently are and gain an understanding of why diversity is important. Members will also discover how to include others in their chapter and learn how to work with everyone, no matter their background.

“Trials on the Trails” By Kegan Zimmerman, Minnesota FFA State Vice President

Sponsored By: Harvest Capital Company

Sunday @ 4:00 P.M. in North Sister: Haystack

Description: Life is full of challenges, victories, setbacks, and triumphs, but one thing is certain: the journey is long and complicated. FFA has the tools to help us navigate that journey! Discover what it means to live FFA and create a map to your future!