

PREPARED PUBLIC SPEAKING

During the Prepared Public Speaking Leadership Development Event (LDE), students write and deliver a speech about a current agriculture-related topic.

Students research a topic of interest and then put together a creative, informative speech. The speech is then presented to a panel of judges, who score the student based on the speech's content, composition and delivery.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. EACH CONTESTANT'S SPEECH IS TO BE THE RESULT OF THEIR OWN RESEARCH AND COMPOSITION. Training in both composition and delivery is limited to the facilities of the school from which the contestant comes, but facts and working data may be secured from any source.
2. Contestants who have won the right to compete in a sectional CDE must also file with the hosting district advisor:
 - a. One original and five double-spaced typewritten copies of the speech on 8-1/2" x 11" paper.
 - b. There will be a 50 point penalty for late or insufficient number of manuscripts.
3. Contestants who have won the right to compete in a state CDE must send their manuscript to the FFA Office two weeks prior to the Friday of State Convention by 5:00 pm for manuscript scoring and questions formulation.
4. Contestants who have won the right to compete in a state CDE must also file with state staff through their Agriculture Instructor by 2pm Thursday of State Convention:
 - a. One original and twelve double-spaced typewritten copies of the speech on 8-1/2" x 11" paper.
 - b. A signed statement of originality of research and composition on form provided. (State CDE)
 - c. There will be a 50 point penalty for late or insufficient number of manuscripts. All paperwork received more than 1 hour late will receive a 0.
5. A bibliography must be included as part of the public speaker's manuscript and direct quotes from any other source of information must be marked in quotes on the manuscript and be identified in the bibliography. This applies to all contests above the chapter level. Failure to comply will result in disqualification.
6. Once all public speaking awards have been presented, no changes in the placing or awards may occur. The only exception is if plagiarism has occurred.
7. Official judges shall disqualify a contestant if they speak on a non-agricultural subject. Contestants may choose any current subject for their speeches which is of an agricultural character (nature) which may include: Agriscience and technology, agribusiness, agrimarketing, international agricultural relations, and agricultural communications.
8. Each speech shall be a minimum of six (6) minutes in length and a maximum of eight (8) minutes. Each contestant will be allowed five (5) minutes additional time in which they will be asked questions relating to their speech. Deductions of 20 points per minute, or major fraction thereof, will be made from the score of each judge for speeches under six minutes or over eight minutes in length. (To prevent being penalized, a contestant must speak over five minutes, 30 seconds, and under eight minutes, 30 seconds.) (Major fraction = 30 seconds or more.)
9. Contestants shall draw for places on the program. The program chairman shall then introduce each contestant by name only, in order of drawing, and announce the speech title if desired by contestant.

10. A timekeeper shall be designated who will record the time used by each contestant in delivering their speech, noting over or under time, if any, for which deductions will be made.
11. When the contestants have finished speaking, each judge will total their score on composition and delivery for each contestant. The timekeeper's record will be used in computing the final score for each contestant. Contestants should be ranked in numerical order on basis of final score to be determined by each judge, first without consultation with each other. The high and low rankings of each contestant will be disregarded. The remaining judges ranking of each contestant should be added, and the winner will be the contestant whose total ranking is the lowest.
12. Speeches are to be presented without aid of audio or visual materials except podium and/or microphones.

STATE EVENT

1. Scoring judges for the state event shall consist of five qualified persons selected by the State CDE Coordinator or their designee.
2. Judges shall also serve as questioners who read the manuscripts, formulate questions, and question each participant. Questions shall pertain directly to the speaker's subject. Questions containing two or more parts should be avoided.
3. The official timer will stand, be noticed by speaker and then sit with one minute remaining in the speech length. The official timer will also call time at the end of the question period and the speaker will stop immediately.
4. Score cards are designed to be a guide and state level judges are not required to use it.
5. The full allotted questions period will be used.
6. A written critique by the judges will be prepared for each state contestant and made available to them following the CDE.

I hereby certify that my speech entitled " _____ is the result of my own effort and ability. It is understood that I am encouraged to utilize all available training facilities of my local school in developing my speaking abilities, and that I may obtain facts and working data from any source. However, in securing information as direct quotes or phrases, specific dates, figures or other materials, such must be marked in "quotes" in manuscript and are identified in the bibliography at the end of the manuscript. Failure to do so represents plagiarism and will automatically disqualify me as a contestant.
