

AGRICULTURAL SALES

Students competing in the Agricultural Sales Career Development Event (CDE) gain experience and skills essential to the production and marketing of agricultural products. The team event illustrates related careers and offers a firsthand look at developing product knowledge and driving sales.

Each team in the Agricultural Sales CDE consists of four students with each person's effort contributing to the team's final score. The Agricultural Sales CDE will consist of four parts: a written test (based upon the last four years of national tests), oral sales presentation, a series of practicum's and the team activity. All team members will participate in the test, sales presentation component and the team activity of the CDE. The CDE will consist of 200 total possible points per team member: test, 50 points; sales presentation, 100 points; practicum, 50 points. The team activity shall be worth 100 points. Should a tie occur in the individual or team scores, the highest sales presentation score will break the tie. If the tie cannot be broken using the sales presentation score, the highest written test score will be used. If a tie still exists, the highest practicum score will be used to break the tie. All State Ag Sales teams must be prepared for a full-day of competition

This CDE is particularly suited to students interested in future careers involving sales and marketing, while also growing student skills in customer relations, advertising and sales concepts.

The software utilized should be MS Publisher, but any deviation will be indicated in the coaches' letter. The contestant will have 30 minutes to prepare this advertisement.

All materials will be provided at the CDE site. The contestant is responsible for creation and submission. Only the final product will be judged. At the designated time, final products will be collected, judged and scored.

PROSPECTING PRACTICUM

The event officials will select a sales situation. The participant will be given a product description. The participant will then approach, or place a telephone call to, a customer, and by interaction with that customer determine if the customer is a prospect. The participant will then attempt to sell that product to the customer, or gain an appointment for a future sales call; whichever is appropriate for the scenario. The appropriate goal(s) will be clarified in the scenario. The participant will have ten (10) minutes to read over the product description and the sales situation. Ten (10) minutes will be allowed with a seven (7) minute warning to interact with the judges. Two judges will be utilized with one judge playing the role of the customer.

PART IV – TEAM ACTIVITY

TEAM ACTIVITY (100 Points)

The Team Sales Situation is the team activity. The goal of the Team Sales Situation is to incorporate all the basic fundamentals of the event. Team members work together to demonstrate group dynamics, problem solving, data analysis, decision making, and oral and written communication skills. Team members will coordinate the sales skills they have learned along with the individual skills learned in the practicums.

The following information will be provided to the team as applicable:

1. A product (including features and price - if applicable)
2. Market situation (including competition)
3. Area demographics
4. Company information
5. Description of present and/or potential retail and/or wholesale outlets
6. Community information
7. Transportation, distribution and storage information

8. Existing marketing problems

All team members will be expected to participate. The judges will act as the audience, but will not engage in dialog during the presentation. Participants may utilize any materials provided in the team event for the presentation. It is important that all team members speak up during the entire process so that the judges can hear what is being said and so they can observe how the team is working together. It is critical to remember that not only will the final presentation be judged, but also the teamwork and equal involvement of all team members. Also critical is not only stating what you chose to do, but why you chose to do it. In selling there is no absolute right or wrong answers. Demonstrating the basic fundamentals necessary to accomplish your goal is essential.

The Team Sales Situation will be broken into following three components:

1. Introduction and initial development
2. Presentation development
3. Presentation

There will be 4 prep rooms for the team activity and one room for team judging for the Sales CDE. A rotational system will be developed to allow for efficient use of each prep room; each prep room will be staggered at 15 minute intervals. Each team will be given a minimum of five minutes (5) to read over the supplied information when they are called into the event area. Mock research and data will be provided per team. Each team will then have twenty (20) minutes to develop the basic information and decisions necessary for the presentation to be built upon. This will occur while being observed by at least two judges. The basic information should include (at a minimum): selecting the demographic consumer group, identifying product features, identifying customer objections, and developing a plan so that all members of the team have definable goals and areas of responsibility.

The team will be moved to another area to work unobserved and be allowed thirty (30) minutes to develop their presentation. Dry Erase Boards and pens and/or flipchart paper and markers will be provided. Note: The event officials will have the option to provide access to Microsoft® Power Point Software. The team will then be judged based on their presentation. Each team will have fifteen (15) minutes with a twelve- (12) minute warning to make their presentation followed by a five (5) minute section for questions.

The team will develop a presentation that consists of the following:

1. Identify the demographic consumer group the product will be targeted for.
2. Identify the key features and benefits of the product.
3. Identify potential customer objections and develop strategies to address those objections.
4. Develop a team plan that utilizes all team members:
