

BURNS FFA CHAPTER

1100 OREGON AVE, BURNS, OREGON 97720

Oregon FFA,

The year is 2010 and I'm in a 4th grade classroom, my peers and I are preparing our imaginary "wagons" for the journey ahead. We lead our caravans in the Oregon Trail simulation to safety, with minimal casualties - SUCCESS! However, next on the class agenda was my favorite part of any class... the "big kids" in the pretty tights, shiny heels and fancy, zip up, blue jacket. As I learn about everything these older students represent, they would fascinate me through the years at every assembly, hoping that I could make a difference just like them in my own real life journey.

Fast forward to now; the year is 2020 and I zip my blue jacket, just like my 4th grade self dreamed. As I take a look around me, fewer of my peers desire to swing a sword to defend a castle, defy gravity on the moon or lead a wagon on the Oregon Trail. We now see the world and understand that hard work is part of any aspiration; no longer 4th graders desiring to make a difference in a make-believe world, but rather influencers of the world right in front of us. For members of the FFA, we wear the emblem, not just with pride, but with grit and determination to help benefit every person who makes the industry that the blue corduroy represents. We have the opportunity to help sustain long traditions as well as blaze new trails.

As FFA members, we see the farmers who are out in the fields tending crops at impossible hours and the spokesman representing agriculture in the State Capital. We see every agriculture advocate among the student body and across the nation who works every day to help this industry thrive. As we enter 2020, it is our time to put our feet firmly on the ground, turning dreams into reality. I give myself to you, to hear, see and serve you and every aspiration this year brings. Oregon FFA, I desire to support your journey in advocating for the ag-industry in every way possible. With that, it is with utmost excitement that I announce my candidacy for the 2020-21 Oregon FFA State Officer Team! Let's be the influencers and trail blazers of this brand new era, to serve an organization that impacts the world. Let's get down to business and kick off this decade right; and there is no better way to begin than at the 92nd Oregon FFA State Convention, where I can't wait to see each and every one of you!

Yours humbly,

Alivia J. Robbins
Burns Chapter President
Strawberry Mt. District Vice President
