Hello Oregon FFA!

Imagine you're a jelly bean. What color would you be, what shape, what flavor? Would you be a gourmet jelly belly bean, a classic Easter jelly bean, or would you be my favorite; the belly flops, those jelly bellies that just don't fit the mold?

For me it's all about being the brightest pink, perfectly round, sweetest tasting with a hint of sour, most amazing jelly bean you've ever seen. The bright pink would catch your eye. My perfectly round shape would come from my ability to put everything I have into a project to insure it's done right. Last but not least, my sweet taste, with a hint of sour would be my outgoing, outrageous, and uncanny personality.

However, I am but one Jelly Bean. Eating a jar full of the same flavor, no matter how good they are, eventually gets tiring; but that's exactly why we have an entire jar. Different sizes, colors, and flavors all completely individual, but all coming together to create a whole. Just as jelly beans differ in size, color and shape, our unique characteristics come together to make up the most inspiring organization our country has ever seen.

Oregon FFA, I hope you have a sweet tooth, because as we come together for the 84th Oregon FFA State Convention, we will create the most amazing dynamic, colorful, delicious, jar of jelly beans the world has ever seen. At this convention, I challenge you to embrace your own color, shape, and flavor, while exploring and appreciating all of those that are different from your own. I look forward to seeing you at convention and finding out what kind of jelly bean you are. It is with the greatest excitement and honor that I jump into our jar of jelly beans and announce my candidacy for the 2012-2013 Oregon FFA State Officer Team.

Sincerely,

Megan Boyle
