Dear Oregon FFA,

At 10 in the morning on a cold winter day, I open the freezer to find my next snack. I gather the necessary supplies and with no shame at all, I begin consuming one of my favorite desserts - ice cream.

Ice cream has proven itself to be a versatile dessert. You can eat it with pies, cake, or even on a waffle if you wanted. You can even add toppings like fruit or the beloved chocolate syrup to make it extra tasty. This chilled dairy confection has proved time and time again that it can be enjoyed however and whenever desired, making it one of the ultimate frozen treats.

The members of the FFA prove to be no different. No matter what the task, members are always up to the challenge, showing how they can adapt to handle any situation. By adding in toppings such as CDE's and service activities, you create an organization full of the leaders of tomorrow.

When ice cream was first invented, it wasn't perfect. The first ice cream was a pile of snow that was flavored with honey. Likewise, I was no different when I first joined FFA. I was never really sure of what was going on or what it all meant. I barely knew what FFA was, I just knew that somehow I had gotten myself wrapped up into it. However, as time progressed and I got my first flavorings of FFA, I knew that I liked it. It was something different from everything else I had known. Instead of just doing activities like in most other school clubs, the FFA allowed me to learn real life skills through hands on experiences. Through this, the FFA has transformed me into a leader with the constant desire to serve.

The possibilities are endless in terms of how one wishes to eat their ice cream. The FFA is no different in the opportunities that it gives for us to better ourselves. Each and every day as an FFA member offers something new for us to learn and take advantage of. Through this, we can find ways to improve upon our own skills, and create an impact on those around us. With that in mind, I am honored to announce my candidacy for the 2019-2020 Oregon FFA State Officer Team. As we approach the 91st Oregon FFA State Convention, I encourage each and everyone of you to take advantage of all the opportunities that this institution provides for us and strive for the greatness we all have the ability to achieve.

Respectfully,

Kadi Atiyeh
Sandy FFA Vice President
